Something Old is New Again

November 2 - 12:00-1:00 p.m. ET

Earn CLE/CPE credits if you attend the live session!

This seminar is useful for anyone who works for a company who has a technology or idea that has a potential benefit to the Department of Defense but who is loathe to enter into a standard procurement contract.

What You Will Learn

Our presenter, Jody Reed, Counsel, McMahon, Welch and Learned, will provide a brief overview of OTAs, a description of the key elements of consideration for the use of an OTA, and a discussion of the minimum requirements of an OTA for future work.
